accommodation within the tour price, but we do not include any subsequent transfers. The Málaga area includes any location within 15km of Málaga City. We can provide transfer services outside of this for a supplementary cost, contact us for details.

8. Notwithstanding the above, if the tour includes the final tour night with accommodation in Málaga City, we do not include within the tour price any transfer to the airport/train station/local hotels on any subsequent day. However, depending on the tour, the cost of the hotel and breakfast for this final night is normally included within the tour price and this will be detailed in the itinerary. You will be required to take a taxi/public transport at your cost from the accommodation for your departure on any subsequent day. We may be able to provide the transfer service to you for a supplementary price and will be pleased to provide a quotation if requested. In particular, this applies to the 'Ultimate Andalucia; tour where the final night is included in a hotel in Málaga and also to some private, or other tours or tour extensions, where the itinerary may include the final night in Málaga.

9. Unless otherwise agreed, the free courtesy transfer service for arrival and departure collection/drop-off covers all arrival and departure collection/drop-off times at/to Málaga Airport or Train Station between 09:00 and 18:00. If either your required arrival or departure collection/drop-off time is outside of these times, there will be a supplementary charge payable directly to the driver of €40 for each transfer to cover their additional 'out of normal' working hours. Note, it takes 50 minutes for the transfer between our Villa and the Antequera Hotels to Málaga train station/airport, so we need to depart the accommodation 1 hour before the required drop-off time.

10. In any circumstance, including the 'out of normal hours' service, the earliest drop-off time in Málaga we can accommodate is 07:30. If you have a requirement for a drop-off time before this, then you will need to book a local Málaga airport hotel for the preceding night. This is particularly pertinent to any flight departures before 09:30, since you are required to be at the airport 2 hours before the flight departure to clear check-in and security. For train departures you need to be at the station at least 30 minutes before departure, assuming you already have your train tickets and have printed them out. Please read the notes in the FAQs document about train arrivals and departures.

11. ALHAMBRA. Tour Andalucia will normally pre-book and purchase your Alhambra entrances for you and you need to provide the information requested on the booking form for us to do this, since each ticket requires some individual Client information. The Alhambra is one of the most visited monuments in Europe, so at peak periods, availability can be limited. Given sufficient notice, it is rare that tickets cannot be obtained, however, in the event that Alhambra entrances cannot be sourced for the planned day of the visit, or an acceptable alternative day, and you wish to postpone your tour, we will provide a credit for you to reschedule your tour to another date.

12. Tour Andalucia and/or its employees or representatives will not provide you with detailed historic or cultural information within the monuments during the tour. Our tour leaders are extremely knowledgeable about the area and will happily share their knowledge about history, culture and gastronomy, but most are not licenced City/Monument guides and will not enter the monuments with you. Many of the principle monuments provide Audio Guides for a small fee should you wish to rent them. We do also employ licenced monument guides and if you wish to avail this service, we can normally supply it for a competitive price, upon request.

13. Cancellation by the Client: Any monies paid by the Client are non-refundable under all circumstances. Should you wish to reschedule your tour for another time then, subject to availability, and with cancellation no later than 30 days before the planned tour start date, Tour Andalucia may agree to do so and provide a credit to the Client towards any future tour. You must ensure that you have adequate travel insurance or insurance with your credit card provider to cover any monies paid.

In all circumstances, should cancellation by the Client be less than 30 days before the planned date of arrival, then the full amount of the tour will be due and you will be required to pay any outstanding balance.

14. Cancellation by Tour Andalucia: Should the tour be cancelled by Tour Andalucia, due to reasons solely down to its own fault, then the company will provide a credit to the Client towards any future tour. In the event of insolvency, Tour Andalucia have a bond with the Junta de Andalucía, as part of its tourism licence 'CIAN', and the Client should contact the Tourism Department of this in these circumstances. Our CIAN licence number is displayed below.
